Marcel's "Midnight in Paris" mocktail

Low Proof

From "Dry January" to "Sober-Curious Spring," when it comes time for a mocktail or low-proof cocktail, we've got you covered with the best NA drinks on Atlanta's menus.

by CAROLINE BENTLEY EDWARDS

The Gemlet

PCM's beloved, colorful gem, Atrium, is perfect for brunch and date night. Among three other NA cocktails, our favorite is The Gemlet. This pretty mocktail features Amethyst Lemon Serrano zero-proof spirit, cane syrup, and lime. 675 Ponce de Leon Ave. NE, Ste. 158, atriumatl.com

Doctor's Orders

Jojo's Beloved is the perfect place for a night out, whether you are doing Dry January or not. Try their Bare Zero Proof reposado tequila, prickly pear, lime and Giffard Aperitif Sirop, created by the cocktail bar's Annie Kennedy. 1197 Peachtree St. NE, jojosbeloved.com

Midnight in Paris

Midnight in Paris was dreamt up by Marcel beverage director Clarke Anderson, who notes, "is inspired by the Moscow Mule—slightly sweet, but still nice and refreshing, thanks to the ginger beer. It's also quite pretty in the glass." The concoction features lime juice, pomegranate juice and pineapple juice, shaken and served in a Collins glass topped with ginger beer and garnished with a lime wheel. 1170 Howell Mill Road, marcelatl.com

WHERE TO SHOP IT

Founded by the owners behind Poncey-Highlands natural wine and small batch liquor shop Elemental Spirits Co., comes The Zero Co., a non-alcoholic bottle shop aimed at introducing the Atlanta community to the world of NA spirits. The shop carries over 300 non-alcoholic spirits, wines, beer, and canned beverages and is the perfect place to shop for a mid-week cocktail when you are just dying for some downtime. Husband and wife team Cory and Malory Atkinson found that while running their business Elemental, NA drinks were among some of their most popular items sold, with double-digit growth year-over-year since the shop opened in early 2020. If you want to try any of the above mocktails at home, head to The Zero Co. for the best spirit-free brands and ingredients on the market. 626 North Highland Ave. NE, thezeroco

The Witch Doctor
Little Spirit's Cocktail of the Month is appropriately a mocktail. Created by beverage director Brooke Elrod, this yummy drink features Martini Rossi floreale N/A, chamomile honey, turmeric, lemon, ginger and elderflower tonic. It will make you feel your best! 299 North Highland Ave. NE, littlespiritatl.com

Fragola Fields Forever
The Americano's Fragola Fields Forever is made with strawberry puree, fresh strawberries, hibiscus syrup, pineapple juice and lime to create a refreshing mocktail packed with flavor. 3315 Peachtree Road NE, theamericanoatlanta.com

Pomp and Pride
A tasty, caffeinated concoction made of espresso, grapefruit, lavender, lemon and tonic, the Pomp and Pride from Midtown's Lyla Lila is a must-try mocktail. Not to mention, it pairs perfectly with the resto's southern European cuisine. Lilli Midtown, 693 Peachtree St. NE, lylalilaatl.com
